

Remembering Sarron Goldman

Sarron Goldman joined the Crisis And Responders psychoanalytic Outreach (CARO) early on and we had a good two-year connection with him during which we were able to share our views on the establishment of CARO. The outreach benefited from his compassionate thoughtfulness. He always spoke out on behalf of underprivileged and underserved communities, and was very clear about caring for them, and thoughtful about the way that we as a group work in the community.

He maintained the highest ethical standards which he did to the end. We believe this will be evident in care for those people who in future come to us as a result of difficult experiences. We think that his lifetime of service to the community will be his legacy.

We will always be grateful for his contribution on behalf of them and to CARO, and he will be greatly missed.

In deepest sadness, our thoughts are with those he knew, loved and helped.
